FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE: 01/15/18

First Bank Board of Directors approve fourteen key positions and promotions.

With deep roots in Texoma, First Bank prepares for rapid growth in 2018.

Wichita Falls, TX: 01/15/2018, First Bank, a locally-owned, community bank that has been serving north Texas families and businesses since 1907, has named fourteen individuals entrusted with leading the bank into its second century. From the very beginning, First Bank has prided itself on being invested in the communities they serve. With locations in Wichita Falls, Iowa Park, Burkburnett, McKinney, Ft. Worth, Plano, and opening soon in Frisco, First Bank is preparing for a year as big as the lone star state.

“Consistently serving our community is what has turned life-long customers into friends and friends into life-long customers,” said Chairman and CEO Chuck White. “We’re proud to be a Texas bank with Texoma roots. It takes great people to serve great communities and we’re very excited about those who will help us lay the groundwork for the next one hundred years.”

The Board of Directors has approved the following positions and promotions: Chuck White, Chairman and CEO; Doug Kunkle, President of First Bank Wichita Falls; Chuck Miller, President of First Bank Mortgage; Lance Lair, President of First Bank Frisco and Prosper; Brandon Anderson, President of First Bank Burkburnett and Iowa Park; Jim Johnson, Executive Vice President of Lending; Stacy Hopkins, Senior Vice President of Operations and Human Resources; Holli McClain, Senior Vice President and Chief Financial Officer; Dan Herbert, Senior Vice President; Jeremey Dorzab, Senior Vice President; Jeff White, Senior Vice President; Betty Kemp, Vice President; Landry Scott, Vice President; Roxane Sanchez, Banking Officer.
